

Internships with Photographers

The College of Visual Arts has been cultivating ties with several local photographers of national and international repute. The duties of student interns can range from assisting with photo shoots to archiving work, from working with scanners to digitizing artwork, from assistance with preparations for solo shows to interacting with clients. Some of these internships can be geared toward a student's interests. Most of them are unpaid or offer small stipends.

For more information, contact Christina Schmid at 651.310.0575 or careers@cva.edu