

Internships for Sculptors

Opportunities for internships specifically related to sculpture include regional, national, and international options. Applying for some of these internships is very competitive; hence it is of paramount importance to begin the application process early. While the Twin Cities area offers a number of arts organizations working with sculpture, a CVA student has been offered internships in England and Scotland.

For more information, contact Christina Schmid at 651.310.0575 or careers@cva.edu